📖 Library & Information Science

This dynamic field centers on information organization, management, and dissemination, covering cataloging, digital archiving, and efficient library system design, vital in today's knowledge-based society.

Career Opportunities

Library science graduates find diverse roles as librarians in educational institutions, government district libraries, and organizations like ISRO. Private sector opportunities exist in companies such as Nirma, Reliance, and Cadila, focusing on cataloging, archiving, and facilitating access to valuable corporate knowledge resources. Additionally, civil services in libraries provide further career avenues.
